

Springer's Book Performance Report

Released in June 2019

Proceedings of the International Conference on Computational Collective Intelligence (ICCCI) have been published in the Springer's LNCS/LNAI series since 2009.

Proceedings of the International Conference on Computational Collective Intelligence (ICCCI), comprising papers presented orally, are published within the Springer's LNCS/LNAI series. In turn, papers presented during poster sessions, are published in the form of chapters of the scientific monographs within the Springer's Studies in Computational Intelligence.

According to the recent Springer Reports of June 2019 the Proceedings of ICCCI 2017, ICCCI 2016, and ICCCI 2015 belong to the top 25% most downloaded eBooks in their respective Springer's eBook Collection in 2018.

Up to date we have published 18 volumes of LNCS/LNAI Proceedings including 1,118 papers in total and 103 papers in four SCI books. As stated in the Springer Bookmetrix of August 1, 2019 the total number of paper downloads from both series is over than 1.06 million. Detailed download and citation data are shown in the following tables.
